For immediate release

Regina, Saskatchewan ---- You know you've got to get something, but what? Everything just seems so ordinary. Well, forget the flowers, the chocolates, the dinner out! Surprise your special someone with something really special! Tickets for The Co-operators Taste of Spring go on sale Valentine's Day, Wednesday, February 14th.

Celebrating its 10th year, The Co-operators Taste of Spring takes place April 26th, 27th and 28th. Nearly 5000 people are expected to take in this three-day show and tickets sell out fast, so don't delay! Visitors can sip and sample some of the finest wines, spirits and gourmet foods from around the world -- all in the comfortable atmosphere of the Queensbury Convention Centre. Attesting to the popularity of this event is the support that it receives from the corporate sector: The Co-operators, Casino Regina, SGI, SaskTel, Conexus, SaskFerco, Harvard Broadcasting and West Coast Spas.

Tickets are available from Ticketmaster – visit www.ipscoplacE.com or call 543-7800. Ticket prices are $30 each plus services charges. Limit of 8 tickets per person. Guests must be 19 years of age or older to attend.

Each year, a portion of the proceeds from this event support a registered local non-profit. This year's charity partner is the North Central Family Centre, which delivers a variety of programs to Regina's inner city children, youth, families and seniors. Open six days a week, the programs and services include education, sports and recreation, social and cultural components. The NCFC's mission is to promote positive and healthy changes in the community.

IPSCO Place encompasses 102 acres, including more than one million square feet of indoor space, between Lewvan Drive and Elphinstone Street in the heart of Regina. IPSCO Place is an economic engine with a $66 million dollar annual impact in the Regina community and touches a broad range of people with over 70% of those within an 80 km radius visiting at least once per year. Over 1 million people pass through the gates of IPSCO Place each year.
