

Tickets to The Co-operators Taste of Spring going fast – just Thursday night left!

Regina, Saskatchewan ---- If you've been thinking about getting tickets to one of Regina's most popular annual events, you might want to do it soon. Tickets to the Friday and Saturday night events for The Co-operators Taste of Spring sold out in record time and Thursday night tickets are also going fast.

Tickets and information are available on the IPSCO Place website. Visit www.ipscoplacE.com or call 543-7800. Ticket prices are $30 each, plus services charges. Limit of 8 tickets per person. Guests must be 19 years of age or older to attend.

Celebrating its 10th year, The Co-operators Taste of Spring takes place April 26th, 27th and 28th. Nearly 5000 people are expected to take in this three-day show where visitors sip and sample some of the finest wines, spirits and gourmet foods from around the world -- all in the comfortable atmosphere of the Queensbury Convention Centre. Attesting to the popularity of this event is the support that it receives from the corporate sector: The Co-operators, Casino Regina, SGI, SaskTel, Conexus, SaskFerco, Harvard Broadcasting and Coast Spas.

Each year, a portion of the proceeds from this event support a registered local non-profit. This year's charity partner is the North Central Family Centre, which delivers a variety of programs to Regina's inner city children, youth, families and seniors. Open six days a week, the programs and services include education, sports and recreation, social and cultural components. The NCFC's mission is to promote positive and healthy changes in the community.

IPSCO Place encompasses 102 acres, including more than one million square feet of indoor space, between Lewvan Drive and Elphinstone Street in the heart of Regina. IPSCO Place is an economic engine with a $66 million dollar annual impact in Regina. Over 1 million people pass through the gates of IPSCO Place each year.
