

The 100-acre Evraz Place property has changed over the years, both in terms of the number of events and the major transformation that's taken place in the last decade. The property was originally focused on agribusiness, Regina Pats Hockey and a select number of major events like Canada's Farm Progress Show, Queen City Ex (formerly Buffalo Days) and concerts.

Today, Evraz Place is the hub of sports, entertainment and business events in Regina; it's literally and figuratively the centre of our community and the place where everything happens. Here's a brief summary of what's taken place since Mark Allan started as President and CEO in 2003.

Major property enhancements

- 2004: Queensbury Convention Centre expansion that tripled the number of available rooms
- 2005: 90,000 sq. ft. EventPlex indoor soccer/multi-purpose facility opened
