The Mosaic Company sending thousands to Queen City Ex

Regina, Saskatchewan – Compliments of The Mosaic Company, the Mosaic Experience the Ex – Tickets for Kids Program gives local charitable organizations the chance to help children and families experience the QCX who otherwise might not be able to attend.

Up to 1,000 daily admissions and 200 complimentary ride passes will be available for those individuals, families or organizations who apply and receive acceptance into the program.

“The Queen City Ex is the highlight of the summer for so many children,” said Celeste Geisbauer, Senior Community Investment Specialist at Mosaic. “We want as many kids as possible to experience the joy of the Ex and have those life-long memories.”

“We are proud to partner with The Mosaic Company to ensure our facilities and programs can be enjoyed by all,” said Chelsea Galloway, Regina Exhibition Association Limited (operator of Evraz Place) Entertainment and Events Manager. “It is important to us to continue to demonstrate that support and commitment to our local community.”

The Mosaic Experience the Ex Program has been running since 2011, with over 7,000 youth experiencing the Ex who may not have otherwise. Some past organizations who have been supported through the program include Habitat for Humanity families, Sofia House and Hope’s Home.
