The Great Western Stage brings an incredible lineup to Queen City Ex

Regina, Saskatchewan – Evraz Place is excited for five days (August 2 – 6) of fun and entertainment on the Great Western Stage at the Queen City Ex.

Each night at 7 p.m., The Great Western Stage located in in the Brandt Centre is bringing a bit of country, pop and classic rock, aiming to please all ages and genre preferences.

- CCMA Male Artist of The Year winner Gord Bamford will kick it off on Wednesday, August 2 with popular country hits like “Where a Farm Used To Be,” “Don’t Let Her Be Gone” and “When Your Lips Are So Close.”
- Thursday, August 3 will feature alternative rockers July Talk. Their debut album in 2012 became a staple on modern-rock radio, earning the band a gold record in Canada and a Juno Award for Alternative Album of the Year. July Talk will perform a number of their signature songs like “Lola + Joseph,” the dirty-disco grind “Push + Pull” and first-album favourites like “Guns + Ammunition.”
- In a classic rock-n-roll performance that is sure to please, I Mother Earth and The Watchmen will team up to co-headline on Friday, August 4. I Mother Earth will entertain with hits from their critically acclaimed multi-platinum album “Scenery and Fish,” spawning several Canadian top 10 hits with “Raspberry,” “Another Sunday” and “One More Astronaut.” Showing fans why they continue to sell out shows in Canada year after year, Canadian-formed rockers The Watchmen will continue the energy performing hits like “Incarnate” and “Zoom” from their Juno-nominated albums.
- Flourishing popstar Ruth B, popular for her hit debut “Lost Boy,” will hit the stage on Saturday, August 5. Fans will be treated to her signature performance of exquisite drum beats mixed with rich vocals, resulting in a beautifully-layered collection of relevant pop hits.
- Wrapping up the week on the Great Western Stage on Sunday, August 6 will be reigning CCMA Male Artist of the Year and Fans’ Choice winner Brett Kissel! Also a Juno winner, Kissel will get your toes tapping with his Billboard Canada Top 10 singles like “Started With a Song” and “3-2-1,” as well his chart topping #1 single “Airwaves.”

“We are excited about bringing these talented artists to Queen City Ex”, said Chelsea Galloway, Regina Exhibition Association Limited (operator of Evraz Place) Entertainment and Events Manager. “Each artist brings something different to the stage, keeping to our commitment of always bringing great entertainment and experiences to our fairgoers.”

Queen City Ex concerts on the Great Western Stage are free with gate admission. Tickets are currently on sale at the Brandt Centre Box Office and online at www.thequeencityex.com. Admission passes will be available at Co-op Food Centres and Co-op Gas Bars locations across the province as of Wednesday, June 15.
